Dear Gottlieb:

I am writing to ask you if we can have McClary in Newark next Sunday.

I talked to Semler today, and explained to him we were playing in Harrisburg under protest. I realize we were not supposed to play at all if the players had not been returned to the teams, but I told Semler we have not played a game since last Sunday, and have none until next Sunday, and I hated to go to Harrisburg with all the expense involved, and not get anything, if it is possible to do so. I don't think it will be much anyway.

Semler said he is going to play Sunday in Baltimore under protest also. From what I understand, all the teams sent the men back but St. Louis. It is good we are meeting this week.

Very Truly Yours
